BAR

In the cosy atmosphere of the bar, or in the peaceful terrace the chef barman Romain and his team invite you to discover the tea time..

Bar open daily from
11am to midnight

Let yourself be tempted by a gourmet break by discovering our "le Tilleul" formula including a plate of pastries composed of a dessert from "Sucré Cœur", homemade sweet treats, and a hot drink with choice.

From 3pm to 5pm
18€ per person

DID YOU KNOW ?

The Parisian police force is an invention of the 17th century, more than 300 years ago. Louis XIV invented an efficient police system. In the 1660s, Paris was described as a city of chronic insecurity. Despite the limited human and economic resources mobilized, the first successes of this police force were obvious and inspired the whole Europe!

THE CONCIERGE MUST

- "EXHIBITION FRANCIS BACON - CENTRE GEORGE POMPIDOU"

The Centre Pompidou continues its re-examination of key 20th century works by devoting a major exhibition to Francis Bacon. The last major French exhibition of this artist's work was held in 1996 at the Centre Pompidou. More than twenty years later, Francis Bacon: Books and Painting presents paintings dating from 1971, the year of the retrospective event at the national galleries of the Grand Palais, to his final works in 1992. Didier Ottinger is the curator of this innovative exploration of the influence of literature in Francis Bacon's painting.

From the 11th september to 20th january 2020

- "DIVINE MARILYN - GALERY JOSESH :

For the first time, a major exhibition will bring together the three greatest names in American photography: Milton Greene, Bert Stern who immortalized Marilyn Monroe and finally Sam Shaw who for ten years took pictures of the star's intimate life, and probably the most famous photo of Marilyn in a white dress on the subway mouth. Until September 22th

The concierge desk is at your disposal from 8 am to 9.30 pm everyday

WITH US, SUPPORT THE ASSOCIATION PETITS PRINCES

We are proud to support the Association Petits Princes, which has been helping, every day for the past 30 years, to fulfill a sick child's dream. Several children are welcomed throughout the year with their family at the hotel. If you also wish to make a donation of 1 € or more to the association, our team will be able to inform you during your stay or at the time of your check-out. Thank you !
